2025 BALLOT

Candidate for the Board of Directors

Kathy Boos:

Kathy and her family have lived in Olympia all but four years of her life. She has been a member of Olympia Credit Union since 1995. Kathy and her husband started their business in 1978, with Kathy in charge of accounting and customer service. She has three children, two of whom work for the family business. She enjoys being on the Board of Directors and hopes to continue with the job ahead.

Shirley Legg:

Shirley Legg is a 43-year resident of Washington State having relocated to Seattle from Colorado in 1982 and has been a member of the Olympia Credit Union since 2007. She is retired after a 45-year career in law firm administration and is enjoying the liberty of defining life without the obligation of employment. Being a board member is a privilege and she is grateful for the opportunity to continue to serve as a board member where she can contribute and observe firsthand the growth and success of OCU.

Candidate for the Supervisory Committee

Ric Ordos:

Ric is a lifelong member of the Olympia area. Ric recently retired as business manager for a local church and before that he retired from the State of Washington where he was a financial analyst. Ric has been on the Supervisory Committee since 2002 and has been the Secretary of the committee for much of that time. Ric is appreciative of all the hard work the Credit Union does to help everyday people keep their finances in order and is glad to contribute to that effort. Ric has been a member of Olympia Credit Union since 1976.

Sandy Jenkins:

Sandy moved to Olympia in the year 2000, and loves living in the PNW with her family and many animals. She is the owner and lead teacher of Periwinkle Preschool, which opened in the year 2009, and still loves teaching to this day. Sandy joined the Supervisory Committee in June of 2012, and has been a member of Olympia Credit Union since November of 2000. She looks forward to serving more time on the committee and to continue to support the credit union while being a volunteer.
