Meet your incumbent term volunteers:

Board of Directors

Larry Lufkin:

Larry is a native Washingtonian, raised in the Methow Valley, and has lived in Olympia for nearly 50 years. He worked as a Smokejumper while attending Washington State University where he earned a degree in business with a major in accounting. He also served with the 101st Airborne division in Vietnam. Larry has been a member of Olympia Credit Union for nearly 40 years. He previously served on the Supervisory Committee and currently sits on the OCU Board of Directors.

Dan Hillard:

Dan has lived in Thurston County since 1986 when he was 4 years old. He loves it here, and loves being involved in the community. Dan is a domestic violence and sexual assault survivors advocate for 13 plus years working at various agencies both in Thurston and Mason Counties. While not working or volunteering for Olympia Credit Union, he loves to cook and be outdoors. Dan is passionate about helping people do things they might not have been able to do on their own.

Supervisory Committee

Mary Orazem:

Mary has been in Olympia since 2014. She and her husband were drawn here to be close to their daughter and family. Previously, they owned and ran a small restaurant in northern California for 20 years. After that Mary worked for 10 years at Community Credit Union of Southern Humboldt holding many different positions. Most of the time she was the sole collector for the credit union.

Charles Richardson:

Charles is from Miami FL. In 1985 he joined the US Army and got stationed in North Germany where he met his wife. After living in Georgia for a little while, life brought him and his family to the Pacific Northwest. There he found a job in Shelton at the Washington Corrections Center. After 28 years he retired and decided to join the Board to help out.
